

Professionalism

Students will demonstrate respect, compassion, and integrity in interactions with peers, patients, and other health professionals, adherence to ethical principles, and sensitivity to a diverse patient population.

Students will demonstrate accountability and a commitment to excellence by recognizing and addressing personal limitations and behaviors that influence their effectiveness as physicians.