

THE ROBERT WOOD JOHNSON
MEDICAL GROUP

Robert Wood Johnson Medical School

Do you have...

Severe Chronic Hand Eczema that does not Respond to Topical Therapy?

The Robert Wood Johnson Medical Group, Department of Dermatology in Somerset, NJ, is seeking adult volunteers, ages 18 – 75, with severe hand eczema refractory to topical therapy to participate in a research study on the safety and effectiveness of an investigation oral medication. Clinic visits and study medications are provided at no cost. Participants will be compensated for travel and time.

For more information, please call 732-463-7546.