

INSPIRE

Diversifying Biomedical Research & Education

Rutgers IRACDA – INSPIRE

An NIH Postdoctoral Fellowship for Successful Careers in Academia Diversifying the Higher Education Workforce

Did you know she resides in NJ?

Follow us!

@Rutgers_IRACDA

For more information visit our website: <https://rwjms.rutgers.edu/research/inspire/home> or contact our coordinator: Dr. Patty Irizarry at patricia.irizarry@rutgers.edu

Mentored teaching at Minority-Serving Partner Schools:

- William Patterson University
- New Jersey City University
- Medgar Evers College

And you can too!

APPLY NOW for academic year 2024-25

- One of the most diverse academic communities in the nation is ready to welcome you.
- Competitive funding for up to three years.
- Dedicated, strong and supportive community.
- Your career development is our priority:
  - 75% mentored research at a Rutgers laboratory.
  - 25% mentored teaching at one of our partner institutions.
- Must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, preferably with 0-1 year of postdoc training.
  - ***We encourage applications from people underrepresented in science, including Black, Hispanic, Indigenous, gender & sexual minorities, and scientists with disabilities. ***

Contact Us Today!

